

Great Vespers with Lytia

Priest: Glory be to the holy, consubstantial, life-creating, and undivided Trinity, always, now and for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

If the Ninth Hour was just sung, then proceed to Come, let us bow in worship...

During the Paschal season, we sing:

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling death by death, and to those in the tombs, giving life.

And then proceed to Holy God...

Glory be to You, our God, glory be to You!

Heavenly King, Advocate, Spirit of Truth, Who are everywhere present and fill all things, Treasury of Blessings, Bestower of Life, come, and dwell within us; cleanse us of all that defiles us, and O Good One, save our souls.

Holy God, Holy and Mighty, Holy and Immortal, have mercy on us. (3)

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Trinity most holy, have mercy on us. Cleanse us of our sins, O Lord* pardon our transgressions, O Master; look upon our weaknesses and heal them, O Holy One; for the sake of Your Name.

Lord, have mercy. (3)

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed by Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are Yours, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Lord, have mercy. (12)

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Come, let us bow in worship before the King, our God.

Come, let us bow in worship before Christ, the King, our God.

Come, let us bow in worship and fall down before the very Lord Jesus Christ, our King and God.

Psalm 103

Bless the Lord, O my soul!
You are very great O Lord, my God;

Clothed in pomp and brilliance;
arrayed with light as with a cloak.

Stretching out the sky as a tent-cloth, covering Your lofty halls with water.

You make the clouds Your conveyance.
You surge on the wings of the wind.

You make spirits Your messengers, and flaming fires Your attendants.

You settle the earth on its firm foundation;
it shall stand unmoved from age to age.

The abyss covers it like a garment;
waters stand over the mountains.

At Your rebuke they will take flight;
at the peal of Your thunder they will fear.

They hurdle the hills and run down the dales, to the place You have chosen for them.

You have set up a boundary not to be passed;
they shall never return to cover the earth.

Down in the gullies You make springs to rise;
water shall go down between the mountains.

They shall give drink to the beasts of the field;
wild asses will seek them to quench their thirst.

The birds of the sky will abide by them;
from among the rocks they will raise their song.

From Your lofty halls You refresh the mountains;
the earth shall be fed with the fruit of Your works.

You make green pastures for the cattle and food-plants for the service of all,

So that bread may be brought forth from the earth, and wine that gladdens the heart of man.

So that oil may put a gleam upon his face;
and that bread may strengthen the heart of all.

The trees of the plain will be satisfied,
the cedars of Lebanon that He planted.

The sparrows will build their nests in them;
and the herons will call them their home.

To the deer belong high mountains,
to rodents, the shelter of the rocks.

You have made the moon to mark the seasons;
the sun knows the time of its setting.

You establish darkness, and it is night wherein the forest creatures prowl around.

Young lions roar for their prey,
and call out to God for their meat.

As the sun rises, they will come together, and lay themselves down in their dens.

Man will go out to his labour and work until eventide.

How great are Your works, O Lord,
in wisdom You have wrought them all.

The earth is filled with Your creatures.
Even the wide and open sea itself,
within it there are countless creeping things, living beings small and large.

Upon it there are ships a-sailing, and that great beast You made to have fun.

All of them look up to You,
to give them their food in due time.

You provide and they gather up;
You open Your hand and they are full.

You hide Your face and they cringe;
You suspend their breath, and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth Your breath and they live;
You renew the face of the earth.

May the Lord's glory endure for ever:
may the Lord rejoice in His works;

He looks upon the earth and makes it quake;
He touches the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;
I will praise my God as long as I last.

Would that my thoughts be pleasing to Him:
and I will rejoice in the Lord.

May sinners vanish from the earth,
and may the wicked be no more.
Bless the Lord, O my soul!

The sun knows the time of its setting.
You establish darkness, and it is night.

How great are Your works, O Lord,
in wisdom You have wrought them all.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Glory be to You, O God! (3)

Psalm 140

O Lord, I have cried to You, hear me.

Hear me, O Lord!

O Lord, I have cried to You, hear me.

Receive the voice of my prayer when I call upon You.

Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer rise like incense before You, and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice.

Hear me, O Lord!

Set a guard, O Lord, before my mouth and a portal around my lips.

Incline my heart away from evil dealings, from finding excuses for sinful deeds.

In company with those who work iniquity, let me not partake of what they choose.

May the just chasten me with justice and reprove me;
may the oil of the wicked never touch my head.

Yet even then shall I pray for their welfare.
Their rulers were swallowed near the rock.

My words will be heard, for they were sweet.
As a lump of clay broken on the ground,
so their bones were strewn near the grave.

On You, Lord, O Lord, my eyes are fixed.
In You have I trusted; take not my life.

Keep me from the snare that was set for me,
and from the stumbling-blocks of the wicked.

The wicked shall fall into their own nets,
while I remain alone until I can escape.

Psalm 141

With my voice I cried to the Lord;
with all my voice I implored the Lord.

Before Him I pour out my supplications;
before Him I declare my distress.

When my breath was escaping me,
then You knew my paths;

On the road upon which I was walking,
they set up snares for me.

I looked to my right and observed
there was no one friendly to me;

Even flight was denied me;
there was no one to take care of my life.

I cried out to You, O Lord, and said:
You are my hope, my share in the land of the living.

Listen to my supplication,
for I am laid very low.

Deliver me from my oppressors,
for they have overwhelmed me.

10. Lead my soul forth from prison that I may give thanks to Your name.

9. The just shall gather around me when You give me my due reward.

Psalm 129

8. Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord;
O Lord, hear my voice!

7. Let Yours ears be attentive to the voice of my prayer.

6. If You mark iniquities, Lord, who can stand?
But with You forgiveness is that You may be revered.

5. I have waited for You as You have commanded;
my soul patiently relies on Your promise,
for it has trusted in the Lord.

4. From the morning watch until night let Israel trust in the Lord.

3. For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him there is plentiful redemption;
and He shall redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Psalm 116

2. Praise the Lord, all the nations;
proclaim His glory, all you people.

1. Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
eternally will His truth endure.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Lytia

After the Litany of Supplication and the Prayer at the Bowing of Heads, the stichera of Lytia are sung. The royal doors are opened. The priest (vested in phelonion) and bearing the handcross, and the deacon with censer proceed to the narthex (or outside the church) where the deacon censes the icons, the priest, and the people. Then the deacon takes the following Litany. The following is an extended lytia prayer as used in our parish in Ottawa, Ontario and MASI]

All: Κύριε ἐλέησον. (Kyrie, eleison). (12)

The practice of always singing Kyrie, eleison (that is, Lord, have mercy, in Greek) in response to this petition for the hierarchy, derives from the fact that the first bishops in Rus'-Ukraine were Greek speaking.

Priest: Hear us, O God our Saviour, hope of all bounds of the earth and those far away at sea. In Your graciousness be merciful to us sinners, O Master. For You are a merciful God and You love mankind, and we glorify You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

The Prayers of Light

1. O Lord, compassionate and loving, long-suffering and most merciful, hear our prayer and listen to the voice of our supplication. Make a favourable covenant with us, guide us along Your ways that we may live in Your truth, gladden our hearts that we may fear Your holy name; for You are great and You perform wondrous deeds. You are the only God and none other is like You, O Lord. You are great in mercy and able, in Your power, to assist, support, and save all those who place their hope in Your holy name; and to You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honour, and adoration, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

2. O Lord, in Your indignation do not rebuke us; in Your wrath do not chastise us; but deal with us according to Your loving-kindness. O Physician and Healer of our souls guide us to the harbour of Your will; enlighten the eyes of our mind that we may know Your truth. Grant that the remainder of this day and all the days of our life may be peaceful and without sin, through the prayers of the holy Mother of God and through the prayers of all the saints; for Yours is the might, and Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

3. O Lord our God, be mindful of us sinners, Your unworthy servants, as we call upon Your holy name, and put us not to shame for having placed our hope in Your mercy. Graciously grant us, O Lord, all the means of salvation; make us worthy to love and fear You with all our heart and to accomplish Your will in all things. For You are a gracious Lord and You love mankind; and we give glory to You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

4. O Lord, You are praised by the holy powers in hymns which are never silent, and in doxologies which never cease. Fill our mouths with Your praise that we may exalt Your holy name. Through the prayers of the holy Mother of God and the intercession of all Your saints, give us a part and an inheritance with those who fear You in truth and who keep Your commandments. For to You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honour, and adoration, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

5. Blessed are You, O Lord, almighty God. You know the mind of each person; You know what each needs even before they ask or are aware of it. Now, O King Who loves mankind and Who is gracious in everything, in Your great mercy allow us to call upon Your holy name with an unashamed conscience. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from the Evil One; and in Your providence grant all that is beneficial to us. For to You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is due all glory, honour, and adoration, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

6. O Lord, O Lord, You hold all things together in Your spotless hands; You are long-suffering toward us all; You grieve at our wickedness. Remember Your compassion and mercy and visit us in Your goodness. Grant that for the rest of this day we may escape from the manifold deceits of the Evil One; and keep our life free from every assault of the enemy, through the grace of Your all-holy Spirit. Grant this through the mercies and love for mankind of Your only-begotten Son with Whom You are blessed, together with Your all-holy, gracious, and lifegiving Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

7. O great and wonderful God, You govern all things with Your indescribable goodness and rich providence. You have provided us with the goodness of this world and have assured us, through Your kindness, of attaining the promised kingdom. O Lord, through all the blessings already received this day, You have kept us away from evil; grant that we spend its remaining hours without blame before Your holy glory, and that we may sing Your praise, O You, the only gracious One Who loves mankind. For You are our God, and we give glory to You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

8. O great and most high God, You alone are immortal and You dwell in a light which is unapproachable. You created all things in Your wisdom, dividing light from darkness, establishing the sun to govern the day and the moon and stars to rule the night. You have deemed us, poor sinners, worthy to reach this hour, to come into Your presence with our thanks, and to offer You our evening praise. O Lord Who loves mankind, let our prayers ascend to You as incense, and accept them as a sweet fragrance. Grant that this evening and the coming night may be spent in peace; clothe us with the armour of light; save us from the fears of the night and from things that lurk in darkness. Grant that the sleep You have given to refresh us from our fatigue may be free from every evil. Yes, O Lord and Giver of all good things, grant that, having found favour in Your sight, we may lie down to rest, remembering Your name throughout the night; and enlightened by the practice of Your commandments, may we rise in gladness of soul to praise Your goodness, offering prayers and supplications for our sins and those of Your people. Look down upon us with mercy, through the intercession of the Mother of God; for You are gracious Lord Who loves mankind, and we glorify You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.
